

Internship at the German Book Office New Delhi, India

The German Book Office (GBO) New Delhi is a joint venture of the Frankfurt Book Fair and the Foreign Office of the Federal Republic of Germany. The Frankfurt Book Fair has five International Book Information Centres, which include the GBO in New York, Book Information Centres (BIZ) in Beijing, Bucharest and Moscow. Besides promoting German books and the activities of the Frankfurt Book fair, GBO New Delhi serves as a contact point between German as well as international book industries and the book industry in South Asia.

Since we began operations in India we have initiated various projects related to content, publishing and exchange. We work with partners across the board – individuals, publishing firms, cultural institutions, government agencies, corporates, digital companies, book fairs, international agencies, educational institutes, media... etc.

GBO interns assist in all matters of business, gaining a sense of the Indian publishing industry. Duties include research, organizing events, liaising with publishers, and assisting with general office tasks.

Interns will receive a monthly stipend.

Qualifications:

- Strong interest in German and Indian publishing industry
- Excellent written and spoken English and German
- Basic computer proficiency, familiarity with MS Office and internet search engines

To apply for an internship, please send a letter of interest and your resume to info@newdelhi.gbo.org.

For more information please visit our website www.newdelhi.gbo.org.

Thank you and we are looking forward to your application!